ANNUAL REPORT

Innovative Teaching Learning Committee
2022-2023

The Innovative Teaching Learning Committee was established under the guidance of the principal of the college Dr. L. H. Khalsa in the academic session 2022-2023 Prof. N. A. Borode, Coordinator with the members Dr. C. D. Mungmode and Prof. A. P. Raut completed the work of this committee, by providing the guidelines of remedial and booster coaching classes and preparing the systematic annual plan for the activity coming under the committee.

As per the guideline of the committee, in the reserve session 2022-23, for successful implementation of the Academic Sustenance System students who scored on an average less percentage in any subject of B.Sc., B.A., B.Com. should consider slow learners whereas students who scored the highest percentage in any subject of B.Sc., B.A., B.Com. consider advance learners. As per the circular remedial and booster coaching were taken after the college hours.

Time to time notices were circulate in between faculties regarding the conduction of remedial and booster coaching classes by the committee. As per notices of the committee, the faculty of each concern subject department prepared the list of remedial and booster students based on criteria. The period of the activity was from October-November 2022 and February-March 2023, attendance of the students had been maintained for this purpose

All the faculties of the concerned subject department took remedial and booster coaching classes in the prescribed period and evidences of these classes was submitted to the committee. As part of outcome of said activity, most of the students were having problem solving the papers. Faculty of concern subject tried to solve the problem of slow learners by providing them question banks, and tries to increase their marks. Meanwhile, booster classes for advanced learners should help in increasing their scores.

Meeting Minutes

On 13/10/2022 a meeting was put in place in the department of Political Science prof. Gajanan W. Borkar, who is in charge of the committee and prof. Vaibhav P. Padole, who is also in the committee were both present at the meeting. During the meeting the following topics were talked about and suggestions were given:

- 1) It was decided to make an annual plan of internal and external exam that will be held throughout the academic year and that this annual plan will be followed.
- 2) The committee members all agreed that it is necessary for the receiving departments to give internal assessment guidelines. This will make it easy to separate internal and external activities.
- 3) It was also decided that the odd semester of the 2022-23 academic year is going to be completed soon. So each academic department must do its internal assessment and keep a record of the result in its own department.
