Prof. Dr. Vijay Rawatkar has introduced the workshop. He clarified that 50 percent questions are asked based on English and Marathi language in various competitive examinations. More than half of the questions are asked on the sayings, phrases and experiments used on a very practical level in the Marathi language. These questions are studied by students from secondary school. But it is difficult for the students who are not familiar with the nature of the questions in the exam and mainly the exam. He said that if students prepare for language, grammar and paragraph questions, they can easily pass the first test and also the main exam and achieve success in life. English Department Head Prof. Nomes Meshram said that, the English language questions in the competitive examination are based on simple, straightforward and secondary school grammar. Fearlessly understand technique of the questions. The workshop was chaired by Deputy Principal Dr. Chandrakant Dorlikar. He said that students should not keep in mind the shortcomings of the arts branch. According to Prof. Dilip Ghonmode, questions in Marathi grammar like Sandhi, Samas, Prayog, Alankar, Mhani, Vakprachar are asked in a large number of competitive exams. Introducing the questions that are asked on the above subject in the exam, saying that we have learned only in secondary school. Prof. Vaibhav Padole explained the simple method of using vocabulary, root word, hard word, synonym antonym to collect English words. Prof. Anil Raut introduced the questions on Phrase. Program hosting by Sneha Mohurle, thanks you Considered by Bharti Gedam. Majority of students of Arts attended and took advantage of the workshop.
