Objective of the Activity	The objectives of the camp were: 1. To keep biosecurity of the animals. 2. To maintain the personal relationship of vaccination teams with the villagers; 3. To continue the outreach activity. 4. To generate awareness about protection and conservation of pet livestock among the villagers.
Brief Description	Animal Husbandry is one of the key sectors which is very important from the point of view of income and employment in the rural areas. Animal Husbandry sector plays a very important role in the economy of the state. One third of the rural economy is dependent on this sector. Animal Husbandry gives an opportunity for poverty eradication, development of rural economy & alleviation of unemployment. Moreover availability of protein for human need, sufficient and incessant economic gain for rural people and employment for unemployed youths depend upon the multifaceted programmes of Animal Husbandry. Vaccination of cattle against various diseases is done in the camp in the wake of rain that lashed recently. The preventive veterinary services include production/procurement of vaccine. Vaccination team consists of a Veterinary Doctor, Livestock Inspector and Animal Husbandry Assistant. Anthrax, Hemorrhage Strepticemia (H.S), Black quarter vaccines are administered to cattle. Vaccination started at early in the mornings 8:00 am and completed on 5:00 pm, same days.
Outcomes/impact of the Activity	At the camp conducted at Kasvi, 215 animals were treated as well as vaccinated by Dr Vaibhav Deshpande and Team. Most of the animals were found suffering from diarrhea which could be a result of parasitic infestation. Some surgical as well as gynecological procedures were also performed. Diagnosis of the animal disease is done through various diagnostic labs. Animal disease surveillance programme is implemented for forecasting and thereby preventing and eradicating the diseases.
