Abstract

With the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic, the issues of shelter, food and protection of the immigrants are on rise. Bharati Mukherjee, an immigrant feminist writer of India has focused on the South Asian immigrated women's problems. The novel 'Jasmine' (1989) represents an ambitious and strong lady who combat the challenges that come on her path. The aim of the present paper is to encompass the immigrant issues and problems through the character Jasmine who is successful to established her identity and complete her dreams by accepting every challenges in her way.

Keywords – Immigrants, Painful, COVID 19, Pandemic, Challenges

Analysis

The year 2020 is turned to the hardest and painful year because of the abrupt outbreak of the COVID 19. From ration card holders to Swiss Bank accountants are become the prey to the disease. By staying in home people are facing the crisis but the most sufferers of the disease are the migrated who suffer from the terror of COVID 19 along with the strong will to return home. Migration is a challenging concept. People migrate for their own reasons and needs. Most of the people migrate because of the geographical and environmental conditions,
