Notice

All department heads of the college are kindly requested to maintain records of all activities conducted in their respective departments regarding the winter 2023 examination. This includes records of practical examinations, audit courses, internal evaluations of undergraduate and postgraduate students, and skill and enhancement courses. Additionally, the department heads should promptly notify the university of the grades obtained by students enrolled in these courses, as instructed by the office.

It is the responsibility of the department the head to publish the results of internal evaluations on the departmental notice board and address any student complaints that may have been lodged concerning internal evaluation. The department head should escalate the student's complaint to the Internal Evaluation Committee if resolution is not possible.
