Inaugural Session

Introductory and Welcome Speech :

The Principal of the college, Dr. L.H. Khalsa Sir

The principal of the college Dr. L.H. Khalsa Sir in his introductory and inaugural address said “If women are to be freed from social inequality, domestic abuse and economic dependence, the first thing that is needed is women's empowerment. Women need to be sure that 'we are capable'. Never live in self-pity that you are a woman. When you fall into self-pity, you lose energy, enthusiasm and strength. It is a matter of pride that in our college girls are 70% as compared to boys. Even today, only 13 percent of women are represented in Parliament. It is a myth that women are incapable. We congratulate the award-winning female sevakas for making women policy makers and wish them all the best for their continued service in the future. He also wished the seminar a success.

Inaugural & Keynotes Address

Smt. Ayushi Singh(IAS), CEO Zilla Parishad, Gadchiroli

In the opening session of this seminar, Hon. Mrs. Ayushi Singh (IAS) Chief Executive Officer, Zilla Parishad, Gadchiroli was present. First of all, I am also an arts student and I am a graduate in arts. Sociology, political science are my favorite subjects. Although men and women are working equally in all fields today, men's history is written in the word history. Raising the question why it should not be She Story, he asserted the need for self-reliance and self-determination for economic, social and political empowerment of women. There are many schemes of the government for the empowerment of tribal women, women should definitely take advantage of all these schemes. For the empowerment of women, the state government always takes a positive approach and helps them in various ways. The government is implementing many schemes for women to become self-reliant and self-sufficient, to develop them and to actively participate in development work. Various schemes like Women's Savings Group, Suvarna Jayanti Gram Swayamrojgar Yojana are implemented through different departments. Apart from this, a comprehensive women's policy is also being implemented. Today, the government is helping women to stand on their own through women's self-help groups. Savings groups are empowering women to be educated as well as vocal and overcome their suffering. With determination, hard work and courage, women can successfully bring prosperity from industry. For this, they are always getting support from the government. In the opening session of this seminar, Mrs. Ayushi Singh was speaking. Also, in this seminar, she gave information about many schemes for women empowerment like Balika Samrudh Yojana, Indira Gandhi Mahila Sankarshan Yojana, Women Vocational Training Yojana, Suvarna Jayanti Urban Employment Yojana.

Felicitations address

Smt. Shubdatai Deshmukh

Co-Convener Amhi Amchya Arogyasathi Organization (NGO)

On this Conference Mrs. Shubdatai Deshmukh narrated her work experience. We Indian women were the first in the world to get the right to vote through the constitution.

Although the women's struggle started with the textile mill movement of America, Savitribai Phule, Mahatma Phule, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's foundational contribution for the upliftment of Indian women. When we know the plight of many laboring women in tribal areas, we do not fear four-legged animals. But bipeds are more feared. Sad to hear this. As a mother you are falling short in inculcating the youth who make women. Today, if women come into politics and social causes, men think who will bake bread at home? Men who ask such a question want a maid as a wife. If we women need husband's Aadhaar card to avail schemes, we should rethink such schemes. A woman does not need her husband to change her maiden name after divorce. Education and other financial assets should be in the name of both husband and wife. For Hindu Code Bill, Women's Heritage, Property Rights. Women should know that Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar had resigned as minister. Women should raise voice against sexual harassment in office. On the occasion of International Women's Day, Mrs. Shubdatai Deshmukh asserted that women should be empowered in all fields.

Felicitation address

Dr. Priyanka Shedmake

Doctors in tribal society(Gynaecologist)

Dr. Priyanka Shedmake says that girls do not get the same treatment as boys since childhood. Sons are nurtured as the lamp of the clan while daughters are nurtured as extraneous wealth. Women in rural areas who have two daughters want a third son after two daughters. It is our experience that this does not require family planning surgery. Due to this, discrimination between boys and girls continues in rural areas. Women should wake up for this. Such occult Dr. Expressed by Priyanka Shedmake.

Felicitation address

Mrs. Manishatai Donadkar

Social Worker & ZP Member Dist. Gadchiroli

Manisha Donadkar, (Zilha Parishad Member) in her opinion said that if women do not get enough representation in the Parliament when half of the women in the world and in India today, it is not equal justice. Even today in politics, decisions of rural women sarpanch are taken by her husband. Men fill up forms for application or eligibility for candidacy for women in Zilla Parishad. Women should be empowered to make their own decisions. She expressed this opinion.

Felicitation address

Smt. Lakshmitai Mane

Social Worker & Ex. ZP Member Dist. Gadchiroli

In this conference, Smt. Lakshmitai Mane also brought this global women's movement, which started from textile mills in America, to India. Even though women are getting all kinds of rights under the law in India, even today the exploiters of women wrestlers are glorified in the parliament. Women are still not getting rights in India. Women should fight for this. The real meaning of women empowerment will be understood when women in India are well educated and empowered to the extent that they will be able to make independent decisions in every field. Smt. Lakshmitai Mane expressed this opinion.

Felicitation address

Smt. Venutai Dhavgaye

Social Worker

In this conference, Venutai Dhavgaye, (former Zilla Parishad member) achieved all his success from working as a laborer to becoming a Zilla Parishad member. Women empowerment is a special topic of discussion in today's modern times. Considering the importance of women in our Adigranthas it is said that "yatra naryastu puhyante ramante tatra devata:" meaning where women are worshipped, there resides the deity. But look at the joke, despite having so much power in a woman, she is in dire need of empowerment.

Women's economic empowerment refers to their economic decisions, access to income, assets and other facilities, only through which they can raise their social status. To empower women in India, it is first necessary to kill all the demonic ideas that kill their rights and values in the society, like - dowry, illiteracy, sexual violence, inequality, infanticide, domestic violence against women, prostitution, human trafficking etc.

When these monstrous thoughts in the society will die, we will be able to empower women. Such opinion smt. Expressed by Venutai Dhavgaye.

Presidential Address

Shri Manojbhau Wanmali

Secretary, Manoharbhau Shikshan prasarak Mandal, Armori

Secretary of the Manoharbhau Shikshan prasarak Mandal, Armori from his presidential speech in the seminar. Although Venerable Wamanraoji Wanmali has played a significant role in the birth and growth of the organization by Manojbhau Wanmali, I salute our Mother Smt. Watsalabai Wanmali who has supported him in every difficult situation. This institution produced many students in rural areas. Today he is in a big position. I congratulate all the social workers and award winning women. He appealed to men and women to do similar work in future.

First Technical Session

Resource Person

Prof. Dr. Snigdha Kamble,

Head of Department of Sociology,

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar College, Bramhapuri, Chandrapur

As the keynote speaker in the first technical session, Dr. Snigdha Kamble, Department Head, Department of Sociology, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar College, Bramhapuri were present. Indian society is one such society which includes many types of customs, traditions and beliefs. Some of these old beliefs, traditions are becoming a problem in women empowerment in India today. Even today, women living in rural areas are caught in the web of tradition. The hearth and the child have not come out of it. Today, although women are seen in big positions like political, social and administrative, the number of women who get this kind of position is very less. That is, even today women live in the environment of old thinking, they consider themselves lower than men, so the socio-economic status of women does not change. Women need to stop blaming themselves and start praising themselves. Don't even think that I am a woman. Nothing will happen because of this inner disparity. Stand up, women have the power to claim your rights. This is the opinion of Dr. Snigdha Kamble.Mam, In the first technical session, the key speaker.

Chair Person

Dr. Gopichand Nimbarte

Asso. Professor, Department of Humanities & Social Science,

Visvesvaraya National Institute of Technology (VNIT), Nagpur

In the first technical session of the seminar, Dr. Gopichand Nimbarte, Professor, V.N.I.T. Nagpur was present as Chair Person. According to him, it is very important to empower tribal women. Because the socio-economic progress of India depends on the progress of women. Today's woman is now awake and active. Someone has well said, that when a woman begins to break the shackles and restraints imposed on her, no power in the world can stop her. Although currently women are becoming Presidents, Prime Ministers, administrative officers, doctors, lawyers, some women still need support and help, Old and orthodox ideologies, women in India are not allowed to go out of the house, women do not have the freedom to go out of the house for education or work, women consider themselves less than men, exploitation at the workplace, lack of freedom to take family related decisions, illiteracy among women etc. are the obstacles in the way of women empowerment in India. Through women empowerment, women become socially, politically, economically empowered, they can lead a life with dignity and freedom, contribute to the economic development of the country, and remove their dependence on men. This is the opinion of Dr. Gopichand Nimbarte.

Second Technical Session

Resource Person

Dr. Ranjana Lad

Chairman, BOS Sociology, Gondwana University, Gadchiroli

As the keynote speaker in the second technical session Dr. Ranjana Lad, President, Board of Study, Sociology, Gondwana University Gadchiroli was present. We can tell the progress of that country by looking at the position and status of women in any country. Empowerment of all the women in India is imperative if India wants to achieve great progress. Society, country, political leaders, voluntary organizations, women, all of them should come together for women's empowerment, Although it is true that women at large do not face discrimination in today's society, unfortunately, many women today face various forms of abuse and harassment, be it emotional, physical, mental, sexual, family. Today we are living in the age of women empowerment. Women all over the world are working shoulder to shoulder with men. Today she has got the right to take many personal and family decisions. Today, women's political participation is increasing due to 50% reservation in politics. But still, women cannot take political decisions of their own accord due to male-centric politics in India. Many women's political decisions are taken by their husbands, brothers, father-in-law and other male members of the family. So unless women make their own decisions, the goal of women empowerment in India will not be achieved. Dr. Ranjana Lad expressed this opinion.

Chair Person

Head, Department of Sociology, Gondwana University, Gadchiroli

In the second technical session of the seminar, Dr. Dhanraj Patil Head, Department of Sociology, Gondwana University, Gadchiroli was present as Chair Person. According to him, the constitution has given many rights to women for women empowerment. The constitution has given women equal opportunities and rights as men in political, social, economic, educational and political fields. Also, the court has also suggested concrete steps and laws for the empowerment of women while delivering justice in various cases. According to him we cannot eliminate injustice, gender discrimination and inequality in the society without women empowerment because empowerment acts as a powerful tool against injustice and oppression of women. Education is an important role in promoting women empowerment in tribal society. Education equips women with the knowledge, skills and critical thinking abilities, enabling them to challenge stereotypes, make informed decisions and pursue their aspirations. It empowers women to participate fully in social, economic and political life. Providing women equal access to economic opportunities including employment, entrepreneurship and financial services is important for their empowerment. When women are economically empowered, they can achieve financial independence, make decisions about their own lives, and contribute to the economic development of their communities. Dr.Dhanraj Patil expressed this opinion.

Valedictory Session & Vote of Thanks

Valedictory Address

Dr. Ravindra Vikhar

Chairman of Valedictory Session.

Head, Department of Sociology

Shri Govindrao Munghate College, Kurkheda, Gadchiroli

Dr. Vikhar Sir was present as the President of the Concluding Session of the Seminar. He highlighted the speeches of the subject experts in the first and second technical sessions of the seminar. Whenever women empowerment is talked about, only political and economic empowerment is discussed but social empowerment is not discussed. Education is an effective weapon for social empowerment, which accelerates the pace of social development. Along with equality and freedom, an educated person also makes better use of his legal rights and also becomes politically and economically empowered. The conspiracy to historically deprive women of education was also done so that neither they would be educated nor would they demand their rights, that is, it would be convenient to keep them as second class citizens. For this reason the percentage of education among women is very low. Empowerment of women is possible only when they become educated. Education empowerment equips women with knowledge, skills and critical thinking abilities, enabling them to challenge stereotypes, pursue their aspirations and contribute to their personal and social development. Dr. Vikhar Sir has expressed this opinion in his conclave speech.
